

About the Ben Barkin Scholarship Program

Mueller Communications, LLC (Mueller), with the generous support of Jack McKeithan, is offering a $2,000 scholarship and paid internship at a competitive, hourly rate during the summer of 2017. We are seeking Wisconsin's best and brightest students who have demonstrated an interest in learning more about the communications and public relations fields. Throughout the summer internship, the selected intern will have the opportunity to experience different aspects of the firm's work, such as marketing research, public affairs, media relations, crisis and corporate communications, community relations and business-to-business marketing.

Mueller Communications is a leading, full-service public relations agency located in Milwaukee. Our team of seasoned professionals has extensive experience addressing the research, communications, government and public affairs needs of clients at the local, regional and national levels.

Making Milwaukee Great

We want to hear why you think Milwaukee is great. To be considered for the 2017 Ben Barkin Scholarship Program, create an original entry piece that encompasses what you love about Milwaukee. Entry examples could include: short essay, photograph, poem, mock TED Talk or Prezi. You don't have to write a novel or make a feature film; be creative and simply tell us why you think Milwaukee is great!

In addition to your entry, please attach your resume and a one-page cover letter that includes your name, project title, brief "Making Milwaukee Great" project description and a brief explanation as to why you would be a good addition to the Mueller team.

Criteria

To be considered for the 2017 Ben Barkin Scholarship Program, you must meet these requirements:

- Enrolled as a full-time student at a Wisconsin college or university, or be from Wisconsin if you're enrolled out of state;
- Entering senior year in the fall of 2017; and
- Must be available to participate in the Mueller Communications full-time internship program in Milwaukee during the summer of 2017.
